Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 12/17/2008 (Restriction Election).
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 10, 11, and 21 contain the trademark/trade name Lexan . Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe a polycarbonate compound and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite. The claim rejections follow below as best understood by the Office.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-13, and 19-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Towne et al US Patent 3918053.

Regarding claim 8, Towne et al discloses an apparatus comprising:

a plastic object (elements 1,10, Figs 1-11) is of a homogeneous material and comprises a visually perceptible symbol and said plastic object further comprises a first surface (elements 10, Figs 1-11), which first surface comprises a hollow (elements 17, Figs 1-11) shaped like the symbol, which bottom surface formed by the hollow is arranged so as to transmit light emitted by a light source and said bottom surface is of said homogeneous material, a second surface (elements 1, Figs 1-11), which second surface is located on the opposite side of the plastic object with respect to said first surface, on which said symbol is intended to be visually perceptible when light is emitted from the side of said first surface.

Regarding claim 9, Towne et al discloses characterized in that said object is made of homogeneous plastic molded material(elements 1,10, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 10, Towne et al discloses characterized in that the plastic molded material comprises a polycarbonate compound which further comprises polycarbonate Lexan 121R-7104 and polycarbonate Lexan 123R705780LM substantially in equal amounts(elements 1,10, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 11, Towne et al discloses characterized in that 100% of said polycarbonate compound comprises 50% polycarbonate Lexan 121R-7104 and 50% polycarbonate Lexan 123R705780LM(elements 1,10, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 12, Towne et al discloses characterized in that said second surface reflects light(elements 10, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 13, Towne et al discloses characterized in that said surface of the area of the hollow does not reflect light and it is arranged so as to transmit light from the side of said second surface to the side of said first surface(elements 17, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 19, Towne et al discloses an apparatus comprising:

a plastic object (elements 1,10, Figs 1-11) of a homogeneous material, the plastic object including: a symbol; a first surface (elements 10, Figs 1-11), which first surface comprises a hollow (elements 17, Figs 1-11)shaped like the symbol, which bottom surface formed by the hollow is arranged so as to transmit light emitted by a light source and said bottom surface is of said homogeneous material; and a second surface (elements 1, Figs 1-11), which second surface is located on the opposite side of the plastic object with respect to said first surface, on which said symbol is intended to be visually perceptible when light is emitted from the side of said first surface.

Regarding claim 20, Towne et al discloses wherein the plastic object comprises a homogeneous plastic molded material(elements 1,10, Figs 1-11).

Regarding claim 21, Towne et al discloses wherein the plastic molded material comprises a polycarbonate compound including polycarbonate Lexan 121R-7104 and polycarbonate Lexan 123R705780LM substantially in equal amounts(elements 1,10, Figs 1-11).
